The nominator must provide evidence that the nominee meets one or more of the award criteria; please fill in all that apply.

Please state how the nominated individual or team meets the award criterion for significant, influential use of architecture as a critical factor in the successful launch of a product or system.

Please state how the nominated individual or team demonstrates the award criterion for leadership in motivating others in an organization or in the community to adopt an innovative software architecture practice.

Please state how the nominated individual or team meets the award criterion for a product or innovative software architecture practice that produced a persistent change in behavior and results.

Please state how the nominated individual or team meets the award criterion for emergence of a new or different perspective on software architecture.

Award Criteria

• Significant, influential use of architecture as a critical factor in the successful launch of a product or system.

• Leadership in motivating others in an organization or in the community to adopt an innovative software architecture practice

• Product or innovative software architecture practice that produced a persistent change in behavior and results

• Emergence of a new or different perspective on software architecture

Please provide tangible, measurable, and verifiable evidence and a full explanation of how the nominee meets at least one of the Award Criteria. Evidence for more than one criterion may be provided, but at least one criterion should be addressed in generous detail.

The publication of results may be cited as evidence, but publication is not a requirement for the award. When evidence is provided in the form of a reference to a paper or web article, please provide a synopsis of the evidence and how it validates assertions made about the nomination.

Each nomination packet must include

• this completed form with tangible, measurable, and verifiable evidence of project success listed

• two endorsements from individuals external to the nominee's organization with tangible, measurable, and verifiable evidence of project success listed

If selected as an award recipient, the nominee or one representative from the winning team will make a presentation at the SATURN Conference, which will be held May 7–10, 2018, and will make themselves available to receive the commemorative plaque when the award is announced at SATURN. Will the nominee be able to fulfill this requirement?

Yes ◯   No ◯

Please complete and send this form plus the two external endorsements (these can be sent separately) to northrop-award@sei.cmu.edu no later than March 5, 2018.

Thank you for your contribution!
