Ultra-Large-Scale (ULS) Systems

- DoD systems of the future will be ULS Systems - “Billion Lines of Code Systems” and more ...
- Socio-Technical EcoSystems that are a mixture of people and technology in balance
- New ways of thinking about such systems are needed
- The Army sponsored an SEI led multi-disciplinary team to search for answers beyond traditional engineering disciplines
 - The ULS Systems Research Agenda, completed 31 May 06, identified a roadmap for research necessary for meeting the Army’s future

Products May Differ, But . . .

Management 101
is still
Management 101!

The background of the slide is a light blue grid with a perspective effect. Overlaid on this grid are several overlapping, semi-transparent images of books. The books are in various colors (purple, green, blue, yellow) and have the title 'Management 101' printed on their covers. The overall aesthetic is clean and professional, suggesting a focus on business and management education.
